FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome to The Village Players Theater!

When Paul Stewart asked me to work on Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, I was skeptical. There were so many reasons: all that music, all that dance, a large cast on a small stage, and over ninety costumes. I went back and forth, and, in the end, I gave in. I'm so glad I did! I have loved working with this wonderful cast. Their enthusiasm for musical theater and Joseph in particular made rehearsals delightful! Their hard work and humor made this director's job easy. Add to this fabulous cast a fantastic assistant director, an amazing music director, and a wonderful choreographer and I am thrilled and humbled to be involved.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat brought many new actors to The Village Players. This is the first VP show for more than half the cast! It is so good to add marvelous people to our ranks. You will also recognize some of our best veterans on the stage. The welcoming attitude of The Village Players made it easy for new people to join in and have fun.

So, sit back, relax and enjoy the show.

If you love The Village Players as much as we do, please consider joining us. You can fill out a membership form at www.village-players.com/become-a-member/.
